Campaign Records Open for Public Inspection

Campaign finance records for the campaigns appearing on the City's portion of the November ballot will be available for public inspection every weekday beginning Monday, October 28 through Monday, November 4, 2019. Records will not be available on Saturday, November 2 or Sunday, November 3.

Attached is a list showing the locations at which the books of accounts and copies of campaign finance disclosure reports will be available for public inspection. Records will be available for the two-hour time period specified on Monday, October 28, and by appointment only during the subsequent days of the public inspection period.

Copies of all City campaign finance disclosure reports, as well as summaries of the data in the reports, are available on the Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission web site at <http://www.seattle.gov/elections>.
